

Robert Glover

Woodhouse Farm, Davenport, Holmes Chapel

Returned

Woodhouse Farm where Robert lived.

His Story

Robert was born on the 7th June 1891 at Woodhouse Farm, Davenport, Church Hulme, the son of Joseph (a farmer) and Suzannah and the eldest of 4 brothers.

He was still living there at the time of the censuses in 1901 and 1911 and working for his father on the farm.

He returned to the area after the war and eventually died in Nov 1956 in the Stoke area aged 63.

His War Record

Robert was called up in September 1916 and joined the Royal Field Artillery.

No more is known about his war record.
