His Story

Very little is known about William H. Lester. He was born in Middlewich in 1873.

The census of 1891 records that he was a farm labourer living at Cholmondeston Farm near Church Minshull.

He died at Crewe in November 1955, aged 83.

His War Record

William was older than most who served in the war, being 41 in 1914.

Nothing is known of his service, other than that his name is on the Church Roll of Honour.
