

Edward James Massey

Deane Cross, Back Lane, Holmes Chapel

Returned

Deane Cross where the family were living in 1911.

His Story

Edward James was born in 1894 in Holmes Chapel to Edward and Florence Ellen.

In 1901 the family were living at Lane Ends, Holmes Chapel and James was aged 7. Edward, his father, was a Corn and Provision Merchant.

By 1911 he was living with his mother and father at Deane Cross, Back Lane, Holmes Chapel aged 17 and a law student.

His War Record

In March 1918, according to the Parish Magazine, he was added to Church Roll of Honour.

In November 1918 he was described as still in hospital but was discharged in December. It does not record why he had been in hospital or where he was serving.

There is no further information.