

Frank Morris

Sommerford Booths, Near Holmes Chapel

Returned

One of the few photographs of the actual moment of attack; an officer of the 9th Battalion, the Scottish Rifles leads the way out of a sap on 11 April 1917.

His Story

In the 1911 census a Frank Morris is living at Newstank, Somerford Booths, aged 11 and at school.

This is about 3 miles from Homes Chapel and is the closest connection to the village found so far.

His War Record

According to the Parish Magazine he joined the Cameronians (Scottish Rifles) in December 1914.

There were no further reports.