His Story

Very little is known about George Williams. His wife was Sarah Ann, and their son Samuel was christened at St. Luke's on 2nd May 1915.

He was not a member of the Williams family of grocers as more information is available for those men, all of whom had Welsh Christian names and lived on Middlewich Road.

His War Record

His name is on the Roll of Honour but there is little information on his wartime service except that he was called up in September 1916 into the 12th Battalion, Welsh Regiment.

He must have served abroad as army records indicate that he embarked to return to the UK on 14th April 1919.
